

Dormansland Carnival – community poem: “If I ruled the world...

If I ruled the world, it would be awesome!
If I ruled the world, I would be deposed tomorrow
If I was king of the world
The pressure would make me EXPLODE
If I could rule the world, I would grow really tall and score lots of baskets in basketball
If I ruled the world, I would live in a tree
I would live in a tree, and always be free
My friends would all come for dinner
We would all get chicken tikka
If I ruled the world, I would make everybody listen to songs and eat tangfastics!
If I were queen I would make everyone jolly and give all the children a lolly.
If I ruled the world, if I was in charge,
McD meals would all come in large!

If I were king for a day
I'd be the best scientist ever
I'd do lots of experiments and explosions
And go to school... never!!
If I ruled the world, I would be happy every day
And spread love and happiness to all.
If I ruled the world, I would have my own aircraft
With a member of staff to make me laugh.
First we would go to Africa to go on safari.
We won't take a break.
I hope we find a snake
If I ruled the world, I would have lots of money, and meet the Easter bunny Everybody would like dogs
Even my granddad, who prefers logs
If I ruled the world, and I could say just how it's run We'd only work one day a week and that would be for fun.
If I ruled the world, I would make the weekend 5 days long.

Dormansland Carnival – community poem: “If I ruled the world...

If I ruled the world, every meal would be breakfast and the school week would be over really fast.

If I ruled the world, time would revolve around me so I would never have to worry about being late
If I ruled the world, I would invent a time machine,
So that if I made a mistake I could go back in time and correct it!
If I was king of the world,
I would do the Silver Duke of Edinburgh, and then the Gold My chocolate cake is very nice.
I would like to win the first prize.

If I ruled the world, I would eradicate war
I would convince all the rich to give to the poor
If I ruled the world, I would make an oath to banish war
And rid of hurt, pain and fear
If I ruled the world, I would end all war and eat chocolate galore
If I ruled the world, I would get everyone what they want and give to the poor
If I ruled the world,, I would make sure everyone had fresh water and food
If I ruled the world, I would give money to the people who have less And stop the world from being a mess.
If I ruled the world, I would look after the poor,
Make them rich and happy, mop their dirty floor
If I ruled the world, I would give food to the poor
And live in a massive house with a nice floor.
If I ruled the world, I would help people with no money and make their life rather funny
If I ruled the world, we would all be as one (and kiss three times)

If I got my way, every day
I would pay for a vacation across the nation.
If I ruled the world, there would be no starvation food for families and their friends for their destination

Dormansland Carnival – community poem:

“If I ruled the world...

Every one would be free from fear, poverty and starvation

If I ruled the world, I would stop all pollution

And all my friends and family would think of a solution.

If I ruled the world, I would end poverty everywhere

Make sure everyone wasn't hungry, cure diseases, make sure everyone was happy

If I ruled the world, everyone in Africa would have clean water,

And all farm animals saved from slaughter.

If I ruled the world, just for 24 hours,

I would help the poor live, so the happiest world is ours

If I ruled the world, the people in Africa would not be hungry and everyone would be equally as rich

If I ruled the world, there would be peace, no poverty and love, love and love

If I ruled the world, it would just simply be that love and peace would reign and there'd be always generous humanity

If I ruled the world, I'd give all hospitals a medicine to cure all illnesses

Then I'd give everyone in the world a second chance in life.

If I ruled the world, no child would go hungry, there would be no wars and peace and happiness would reign

If I ruled the world, I would end all the fighting then become friends until the end

If I ruled the world, there would be peace and we would live with one direction and family and everyone would live happily

If I ruled the world, I would tell each person to love and treat each other in the right way

If I ruled the world,

there would be no cruelty in the world

If I ruled the world, I would create world peace and I would end world hunger

If I ruled the world, I would pay for people's troubles so they didn't grumble

If I was a king for a day

Dormansland Carnival – community poem: “If I ruled the world...

I would make the world more peaceful
And I would make the children more playful
If I ruled the world, I would have anything I want and help the poor who have nothing and have no heart to share and make sure they are healthy and fit and have a good life.

If I were king of the world
Fair and care would be everywhere

If I ruled the world, I would end world hunger
And give everyone a 40-inch TV

If I ruled the world, as king for the day
I would go off to the countryside and roll around in hay
Then I'd go and find a horse and saddle him in style I'd ride around really fast and that would last a while But most of all, I'd build a Hall
And live there with a girl.

If I were queen for a day I would let them play Until it's May, so they can have some hay
To say I'm on holiday. Yippee!

If I ruled the world, I would have Disney World closed for the day, to go on all their rides – on holiday.

If I ruled the world for a day
I'd give out free holidays
I would make every day my birthday starting with today. OK.

If I ruled the world, I'd have it my way
Everyone would have an ice cream a day

If I ruled the world, for one day all I'd have to say would be hooray!

If I ruled the world, I would like to be king for 24 hours a day and buy my mum a palace for her to play.

If I ruled the world, I would live in the queen's palace for a day
And all the taxes, the government will pay

Dormansland Carnival – community poem: “If I ruled the world...

If I ruled the world for a day
I would make everyone say Hooray.
If I ruled the world, I would live in a palace made of sweets
And would party all day every day!
If I was king for the day I would go on holiday.
If I ruled the world, every day would be Sunday

If I ruled the world, I would make the sun shine throughout the summer
If I ruled the world, chocolate would be on the NHS and the sun would shine when it's summer!
The grass would cut itself and no, the car would not get dirty
I could sleep 8 hours from 3am and get up at 6.30.
If I ruled the world and sat aloft
Skating would be easy, ice would be soft.
If I ruled the world, if I was in charge, we'd all have cool hair, just like the Simpsons' Marge If I ruled the world, I would build a charity that would give stray cats mats and woolly hats
If I ruled the world, I would get rid of homework and have a three-day weekend

If I ruled the world, life would be free
There would be no discrimination or racism and everyone would be treated equally
Everything would be free, so everyone could have something.
If I ruled the world, people would stop crying and start flying
If I ruled the world, horses would stop riding and start flying
If I ruled the world, I would help poor people from dying and stop all the crying
If I was king or queen, I would treat all people who are dying and get a jetpack that will send them flying If I ruled the world, I would become king, and maths would be the only thing!

Dormansland Carnival – community poem: “If I ruled the world...

If I ruled the world, I would be an actress
I would be a character filled with evil and badness.
If I was Queen, I would change the national anthem to some thing more cheerful.
If I ruled the world, I'd have a walk-in wardrobe with a new dress and pair of shoes for me each day
If I ruled the world, I would marry one direction and give orphans affection
I would let everyone have a real family and an education
And no pain over all nations.
If I ruled the world, everything would be free
But not for everyone – just for me.
I would make litter droppers become litter pickers for a week Eight hours a day, supervised.
If I was king and in charge of all,
I'd make every MP go on the “big red balls”
If I ruled the world, it would rain sweets and the sea would be Coke
And every boy in the world would fancy me.
I'd make every celebrity with money
Dress up and look funny
If I ruled the world, I would make school learn more about God and Jesus
There would be no post!
If I ruled the world, I'd make every family happy
I'd give them lots of care and a dog that's ears are flappy.
If I ruled the world,, I would give people toys
So they would have lots of joy.
If I ruled the world, I would be really funny and people would give me lots of money.
If I ruled the world, I would live in paradise and swing on my swing seat If only my kids would listen to experience and wisdom, and learn from my mistakes.
An easier path they would embark, and not repeat the wrong paths I did take.
If I ruled the world, I would make everything in the world free

Dormansland Carnival – community poem:

“If I ruled the world...

to me and my friends and family

If I ruled the world one day

I'd make the government get me a team

just to guard my ice-cream

I'd play for a national team,

But after eat lots of strawberries and cream

If I ruled the world for a day

I'd put the taxes down, Hurray!

If I ruled the world for a day.

I'd stop the tsunamis

So there'd be no more harmies

I would make a chocolate factory exactly the same as the one from Charlie and the chocolate factory.

I would even have the oompa loompas working for me.

If I ruled the world, I wouldn't be employed

I would have others working for me, so my time would be enjoyed.

If I ruled the world, I would give people a car so they can go fast.

If I ruled the world, I'd spend time helping people who helped themselves

If I ruled the world, I would make every person go to church

If I ruled the world, I would find a million pounds

I'd choose to spend it on a car that goes round and round.

If I ruled the world, I would rob all of the banks and sack all the bankers for not saying thanks

When I rule the world, everyone shall eat marshmallows 24/7,

It will be sunny ALL the time

Everyone will dress up like a butterfly, own a Mini Cooper, dolphins and dalmatians.

Everyone will give me flowers, everything will be pink and there shall be 10 days of holidays dedicated to me (and tag will be an Olympic sport).

If I ruled the world, nothing would happen and everyone would eventually die.

If I ruled the world, I would destroy all sources of badness

I'll try to make the world a better place.

How I don't know, but I'll try!

Dormansland Carnival – community poem: “If I ruled the world...

Many thanks to all in the community who contributed lines to this poem, both on the day at the 2012 Dormansland Carnival and beforehand at the Dormansland Primary School and at St Piers School, part of Young Epilepsy www.dormanslandbaptistchurch.org.uk

01342 833728